

This Lane Cooper fellowship provides a scholarship grant of $20,000 to a graduate student enrolled during the 2020-2021 academic year at CUNY. The student can be an MA or a PhD student with little or no financial support for graduate studies. The award is for an aspiring college or university professor in the humanities who is of “superior character, attainments and promise.”

The awardee must be in the following subject areas: “the study of: (a) Greek; (b) Latin; (c) English language and literature, especially in the periods of Old and Middle English; and (d) Philosophy and History, including both ancient and medieval.”

Please send the following in one (1) pdf attachment to SDanielsson@gc.cuny.edu, no later than Thursday April 1, 2021:

- 1) Nomination form.
- 2) Nominee’s current and past graduate and undergraduate transcripts.
- 3) Statement listing nominee’s financial support for graduate studies:

The statement should list all financial support the nominee currently receives, has applied for, or anticipates receiving.

- 4) The nominee’s statement of university teaching and scholarly interests, of no more than two (2) pages.
- 5) Letter of support by nominator
- 6) Two additional letters of support

2021 Nomination Form

Nominee

Name	Email Address
Current College	Program of Study
Degree Sought	Dates of Attendance

Nominator

Name	Rank
College	Department
Email Address

First Reference

Name	Rank
College	Department
Email Address

Second Reference

Name	Rank
College	Department
Email Address	